Zinc Media Group Celebrates BAFTA TV Awards Nomination

London, UK – Zinc Media Group plc (AIM:ZIN), a leading British television and content creation group, is pleased to announce a nomination in the Current Affairs category at this year's prestigious BAFTA TV Awards.

'Putin vs The West', created by Zinc Media's label Brook Lapping for the BBC, has been honoured with a nomination for its incisive and compelling portrayal of geopolitical tensions. This nomination is a testament to its team's dedication to delivering content that not only informs but deeply engages the audience with the complexities of global politics.

Additionally, Zinc Media's collaboration with Hardcash Productions through Bumblebee Post-Production has led to a BAFTA nomination for 'Russell Brand: In Plain Sight (Dispatches)' which aired on Channel 4. This investigative piece, which delves into the intricate narratives surrounding a public figure and the media, showcases its ability to deliver one of the biggest news stories of the year.

The BAFTA TV Awards will be held on 12th May 2024.

Mark Browning, Chief Executive Officer of Zinc Media, commented: "We are delighted to be nominated for these prestigious awards which demonstrates the considerable progress made by all of our labels that deliver thought provoking and entertaining content across the whole group."
