Martin Compston to host a new BBC travelogue produced by Tern Television

Produced by Tern Television, part of Zinc Media Group, the new series for BBC Two and BBC iPlayer follows the Line of Duty actor as he returns to Scotland from his family home in Las Vegas. One of Britain’s most recognisable actors, Martin Compston, is embarking on an unforgettable trip around his beloved homeland in a new series co-commissioned by BBC Scotland and BBC Factual.

Reuniting with his friend Phil MacHugh, together they set off on an immersive and personal journey to showcase what makes modern Scotland tick, finding out who are the people and places shaping the future of one of the greatest small countries in the world today.

Zinc Communicate form partnership with Sustainable Travel International

Zinc Communicate and Sustainable Travel International announces a partnership to produce ‘SUSTAINABLE TRAVEL: WHERE NEXT?’ an inspiring documentary series about the people and organisations that are transforming travel.

The documentary series will investigate how the tourism industry is coming together to rebuild a more sustainable future and protect the destinations and communities at the heart of travel.

Tern Television’s returning series brings 187 hours of international sales

Leading Nations factual producer Tern Television has confirmed a total of 187 hours of global sales for its returning series, signalling the continued appeal of its returning series worldwide.

Tern has established itself as the home of popular returning factual programming. With series across BBC One, BBC Two, Channel 4 and BBC Scotland enjoying multiple series and now going-on to flourish overseas.

A RTS programme award nomination for the ITV special 9/11: Life Under Attack

The programme 9/11: Life Under Attack has been nominated for a prestigious RTS programme award. It told the story of the Twin Towers attack using previously unseen UGC footage from New Yorkers living in the city on the day of the attack. It was produced for ITV in association with France Television, The History Channel and VPRO.

Mark Browning, Chief Executive Officer, commented:

"We have made significant strides progressing our projects in recent weeks and are proud to be covering topics highly relevant in the world today. Our productions continue to go from strength to strength. We have a number of developments in the pipeline and look forward to providing shareholders with further updates in due course."
